BASEBALL MEN IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Many Club Disputes Before Association of Baseball Leagues.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 15.—Delegates to the convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues organized early today and adjourned to a late hour, when the first business session will be held. The American association and the Eastern league are represented. They seek higher classification. At present they are rated "class A," the same as the Southern league. They base their claims to advancement to "A A" on the census, asserting that New Orleans is the only city in the Southern league comparing favorably with those of the American association and the Eastern league. Club disputes concerning players are to be considered by the national board of arbitration. About 200 cases are before the board, as well as claims aggregating more than $25,000 and besides these there are to be considered applications from minor leagues for an advancement in classification. A continuation of 10 year agreement under which the association was formed is considered a certainty.
